PUBLIC MEETING FOR THE 60/91/215 INTERCHANGE PROJECT

WHO: Caltrans, the Riverside County Transportation Commission and the offices of Coldwell Banker Town & Country and Commercial Carlsberg Group will host this meeting.

WHY: This is an informational meeting intended to update residents and businesses about ongoing construction on the 60/91/215 Interchange and Freeway Improvement Project. There will be no formal presentation. Project maps will be on display and Caltrans staff will be available to answer your questions.

The scope of the project includes freeway widening; adding, removing and upgrading local interchanges; providing new freeway connectors and a truck bypass connector; and construction of retaining and sound walls and other associated improvements to reduce congestion and enhance freeway operations and safety. The project area consists of approximately six miles of I-215 and shorter segments of state routes 60 and 91 through the cities of Riverside and Moreno Valley.

WHEN: Thursday, April 15, 2004
Open House 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

WHERE: Evergreen Masonic Lodge
5801 Chicago Avenue in Riverside

From Moreno Valley take the 60 west toward Riverside, exit at Central Avenue, turn left and go west to Chicago Street (3.5 miles). Turn left on Chicago Street and go south to Country Club Drive (stoplight), turn right into parking lot (the Lodge sits lower than Chicago Street).

From San Bernardino take the 215 south toward Riverside, take 60 east, exit at Central Avenue, turn right and go west to Chicago Street (3.5 miles). Turn left on Chicago Street and go south to Country Club Drive (stoplight), turn right into parking lot (the Lodge sits lower than Chicago Street).

CONTACT: For more information about this meeting, contact Merilee Colton, Caltrans Public Affairs at (909) 383-6290.
